HORRIBLE ACCIDENT

Judge G. A. McCormick and Daughter Struck By C. & O. Train.

Terrible Accident Occurs at Crossing on Owingsville Pike.

One of the most distressing accidents that ever happened in Montgomery county occurred at the Owingsville pike crossing last Thursday when the West-bound C. & O., train No. 25, due at Mt. Sterling at 7:12 a. m., but which on that day was about one hour and one-half late, struck the buggy in which County Judge G. A. McCormick and his daughter, Miss Florence, were on their way to this city. Miss Florence was killed almost instantly, the buggy completely demolished, the horse killed and the Judge receiving a terrible fracture of the skull. Strange to say, while the horse was knocked several feet off the track, the bodies of both the Judge and his daughter were carried about two hundred yards from the crossing on the cow-catcher of the engine. As soon as the train could be stopped the crew rushed forward and did all they could under the circumstances, they placed the victims in the baggage car and brought them to the depot where physicians were hurriedly summoned. The body of Miss McCormick was taken to the undertaking establishment of Sutton & Eastin and Judge McCormick was taken to the office of one of the attending physicians and later he was removed to the residence of his cousin, Mr. John Greenwade, on North Maysville street.

Ollie N. Garr, a former Mt. Sterling man, but who has been living in Lexington for several years, was the engineer in charge of the train said that his fireman yelled at him just as they were going over the crossing and that he grabbed the brakes but being on the opposite side from which the Judge and his daughter were approaching did not see them until after the train was stopped some two hundred yards beyond the crossing. This is one of the most dangerous crossings in the county and coming toward Mt. Sterling it is impossible to see an approaching train until nearly on the track and the railroad company should be required by the railroad commission to either grade the high bank on the South side of the track to lessen the danger, put up a gate or lower grade of the pike and elevate track so that roadway would pass under the railroad track, as accidents have occurred here before and several times people have nearly been caught by trains.

Mr. Garr who has been running on this road for thirty-two years was very much effected by the accident and it was with a sorrowing heart and tear dimmed eyes he left the depot where the victims of his steel monster lay.

Judge McCormick is one of the most highly respected citizens of Montgomery county while his daughter, Miss Florence, who was just budding into young womanhood, was a member of Mt. Sterling's young society set, who, by her gentle manner and sweet disposition, had won the affection of countless friends.

Funeral services were held at the Christian Church Saturday at one o'clock p. m., conducted by Rev. H. D. Clark. Burial in Macphelah Cemetery.

The ADVOCATE extends deepest sympathy to the stricken family and hopes the ever loving Saviour will give them comfort in their sorrow and affliction.

The latest reports from the bedside of the Judge are that he is resting easy and chances for his recovery are very good.

BLEVINS-WOODSON

Miss Mary Blevins Surprises Friends By Marrying Tuesday.

Was One of This County's Most Popular Girls.

The wedding of Miss Mary Blevins, of this county, to Mr. Gratton Woodson, of Middlesboro, was solemnized at the Phoenix Hotel in Lexington Tuesday morning. The wedding had been announced to take place at the home of the bride this evening but the couple decided to fool their friends, so the bride, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. A. S. Hart, took the 7 o'clock train for Lexington Tuesday morning where the ceremony was performed. After a short bridal trip South the couple will be at home to friends in Middlesboro.

Miss Blevins is a daughter of Mr. George Blevins, is a popular member of the younger set and is considered by many the most beautiful girl in Montgomery county. By her charming personality and winsome disposition she has ever been a favorite among her associates who regret exceedingly to see her leave Mt. Sterling but join us in wishing that her married life may be one long day of happiness and that her life's pathway may always be strewn with roses.

Mr. Woodson is a brother-in-law of Mr. Chenault Cockrell and a partner of his in business. He is said to be a most excellent young business man of sterling worth and splendid morals and is indeed fortunate in securing such an attractive girl for a life companion.

The ADVOCATE joins countless friends in extending best wishes and heartiest congratulations.

TOBACCO SALES

Over 220,000 Pounds Sold Last Week at Splendid Prices

Both Houses Auspiciously Opened—Rain Here Tuesday.

The first tobacco sale of the year was held at the Farmers' Tobacco Warehouse last Wednesday. There were about 120,000 pounds on the floor, but few crops of high grade tobacco, most of it being the cheaper grades. Several of the large concerns were represented and considering the grade of tobacco offered the prices obtained were satisfactory. On Friday a sale was conducted at the Burley Tobacco Warehouse Co.'s plant on the Levee pike and about 100,000 pounds were offered, the grade of the tobacco was slightly better than that offered at the Farmers' house on Wednesday and consequently the average prices obtained were better. A gentle rain fell all day Tuesday and a splendid tobacco season seems assured, and with two good warehouses here able to handle the crops splendidly, we see no reason why the farmers of Montgomery and adjoining counties should haul their tobacco to Lexington. Bring it to Mt. Sterling and you will get the highest market price.

There will be a sale Wednesday morning at the Farmers' Warehouse, beginning promptly at nine o'clock, and a sale at the Burley Warehouse Friday morning.
